

MORAG MAYLAND

LGBTQ+ OFFICER

Hello! My name is Morag Mayland (he/him/they/them) and I am a foundation alumni and current third year Musical Theatre student here at Trinity Laban. I've thoroughly enjoyed my time here so far and I am eager to help create and continue the safety and support that Trinity Laban provides their students.

I'd make a good representative because I'll aim to:

- Create safe spaces for LGBTQ+ students - as LGBTQ+ Officer communication between student and staff is essential. I aim to accomplish this by hosting face-to-face meet ups for students frequently throughout the terms to meet and speak with me about all things queer at Trinity Laban (or anything they fancy!).
- Make stronger connections between societies and the SU - After the lockdown period and in light of the Black Lives Matter movement and the Climate Crisis, it is important now more than ever to increase our intersectionality when addressing representation and collaboration. I hope to partner and work with different societies at TL to shed light to important issues and events such as Black History Month, Trans Day of Remembrance etc.
- Amplify the LGBTQ+ voice and presence in Trinity Laban - Trinity Laban is a wonderful and diverse community where all voice should be heard and listened to. I aim to lift the LGBTQ+ voices of TL by working with societies and staff to make sure that all are equipped to help or guide LGBTQ+ students in their own personal journey during their time here. I hope to also set up Q&A sessions and workshops with LGBTQ+ industry professionals, so students are confident when graduating into the next stage of their careers.

Fun Facts About Me:

- Proud queer person of faith
- Cowboy frog enthusiast
- Highly skilled at making a good cup of tea

Vote for me for LGBTQ+ Officer and make Trinity Laban the diverse and proud community it should be.
